The Park Our Town Built

Story by: Diane Gonzalez Bertrand Illustrated by: Tanja Bauerle
Published by: Raven Tree Press

The mayor wants a community park and safe playground for the children. She enlists a group of kids to join her in asking one of the citizens to donate some of his land. When he agrees, he joins all the families and friends who set out to build swings, benches, gardens, and a fountain. There is excitement and a sense of purpose to build the park for all to enjoy. The whole town comes together to create a beautiful park and celebrate with a grand picnic and beautiful fireworks when the job is done.

The narrative text builds line by line and page by page, using repetition and imagery to create a charming story for young readers. Vocabulary recognition and matching pictures to the text help readers gain confidence in both comprehension skills and predicting a sequence of events.

Story by: Lori Rome Illustrated by: Tanja Bauerle
Published by: The Grand Canyon Association

The Adventures of Salt and Soap at Grand Canyon is the true story of two puppies who wandered into the Grand Canyon and experienced great adventures while ultimately snuggling their way into park rangers' hearts. Salt and Soap didn't know they weren't allowed below the rim of the Grand Canyon—they were just puppies! Their curiosity and love of human companionship propelled them into a Grand Canyon Adventure of a lifetime. Told with compassion and a sense of wonder by the park ranger who adopted the pups, this one-of-a-kind canine adventure tale reveals the kindness of strangers, the ruggedness of the Grand Canyon, and the joy two wiggly, perpetually happy puppies can bring to everyone they encounter.
